This year we plan to focus on timber export trends and prospects for Russia's and foreign timber industry. The speakers are expected to highlight problems and issues which they face in business. As well the initiative by Russia's industry and trade ministry to limit exports of birch as a result of veneer stock shortages in the domestic market.

- Other key topics on the conference agenda are:
- Global trends in logging and wood processing
- Potential impact from the forthcoming birch export ban
- New forestry and related legislation. Government agencies' initiatives
- Regional and foreign experience of wood processing.
